

HIGHWAY HACKING

Are you a hacking pro?
See if you can guess the signs and signals correctly to become a happy hacker!

I am two black lines that get closer together in a triangle, what am I?

- A One way
- B Road narrowing
- C Tunnel ahead

How do you signal to show you're turning when on the road?

- A Lift your arm out to the side in the direction you're turning
- B Turn your head in the direction you wish to turn
- C You can turn without a signal

I appear in a triangle and show a horse and rider. What am I warning road users of?

- A Accompanied horses and ponies
- B Wild horses
- C Horses on the road

How do you thank a driver who passes you safely? (tick all that apply)

- A Gather your reins into one hand and raise your other palm
- B Wave your hand up and down slowly
- C Nod your head and say thank you

A car is travelling towards you too fast – how can you ask the driver to slow down?

- A Shout for help
- B Slowly wave your arm up and down
- C Hold your arm out

STOP

There are two parallel lines of white dashes and a triangle on the road at a junction. What does it mean?

- A Your right of way
- B Slow down
- C Give way

When hacking off-road, what do the posts with blue signs on mean?

- A Footpath
- B Bridleway
- C Cycle route only

Now for the joker question worth FOUR points!

A lot of signs appear in a triangle. What does the triangle mean?

WARNING

0-4 Half-hearted hacker

Oh no! You need to brush up on your hacking signs and signals. These are very important to know to make sure you keep you and your fave pony safe! Do some more research and have another go at our quiz!

5-7 Hearty hacker

Look at you go! You're not quite there yet but you've done an amazing job. When you're next on a hack, look out for these signs and practise your signals and you'll soon be a happy hacker!

8-12 Happy hacker

Woohoo! You're a hacking pro! You and your pony are sooo safe out on the roads with all your knowledge of road signs and signals. Keep up the good work!

I SCORED /12

