

RUGGING READY

Are you a rugging pro? Test your knowledge here and find out!

Molly's having some trouble with rugging her pony Johnny. Can you help her? After all, having ace knowledge about rugs is super-important to keeping your pony happy and healthy!

1 Molly's taking off Johnny's rug. Which end should she start from?

- A The front
- B The middle
- C The back

2 Johnny's a good-doer. He's fully clipped and it's raining and 6°C outside. What rug should Molly put on him to turn him out?

- A Lightweight turnout rug
- B Heavyweight turnout
- C Mediumweight turnout

3 What factors does Molly need to take into account when rugging Johnny?

- A His weight, the weather, whether he's clipped, his age and type
- B Just his weight
- C The weather and whether he's clipped

4 Why should Molly loop the hindleg straps on Johnny's rug through each other?

- A It keeps him comfy
- B It makes the rug look better
- C It reduces rubbing on his legs and keeps the rug in place

5 What symptoms might Johnny display if he's too hot in his rug? (tick all that apply)

- A Sweating
- B Restlessness
- C Rapid heart and breathing rates

6 How often should Molly clean Johnny's rug?

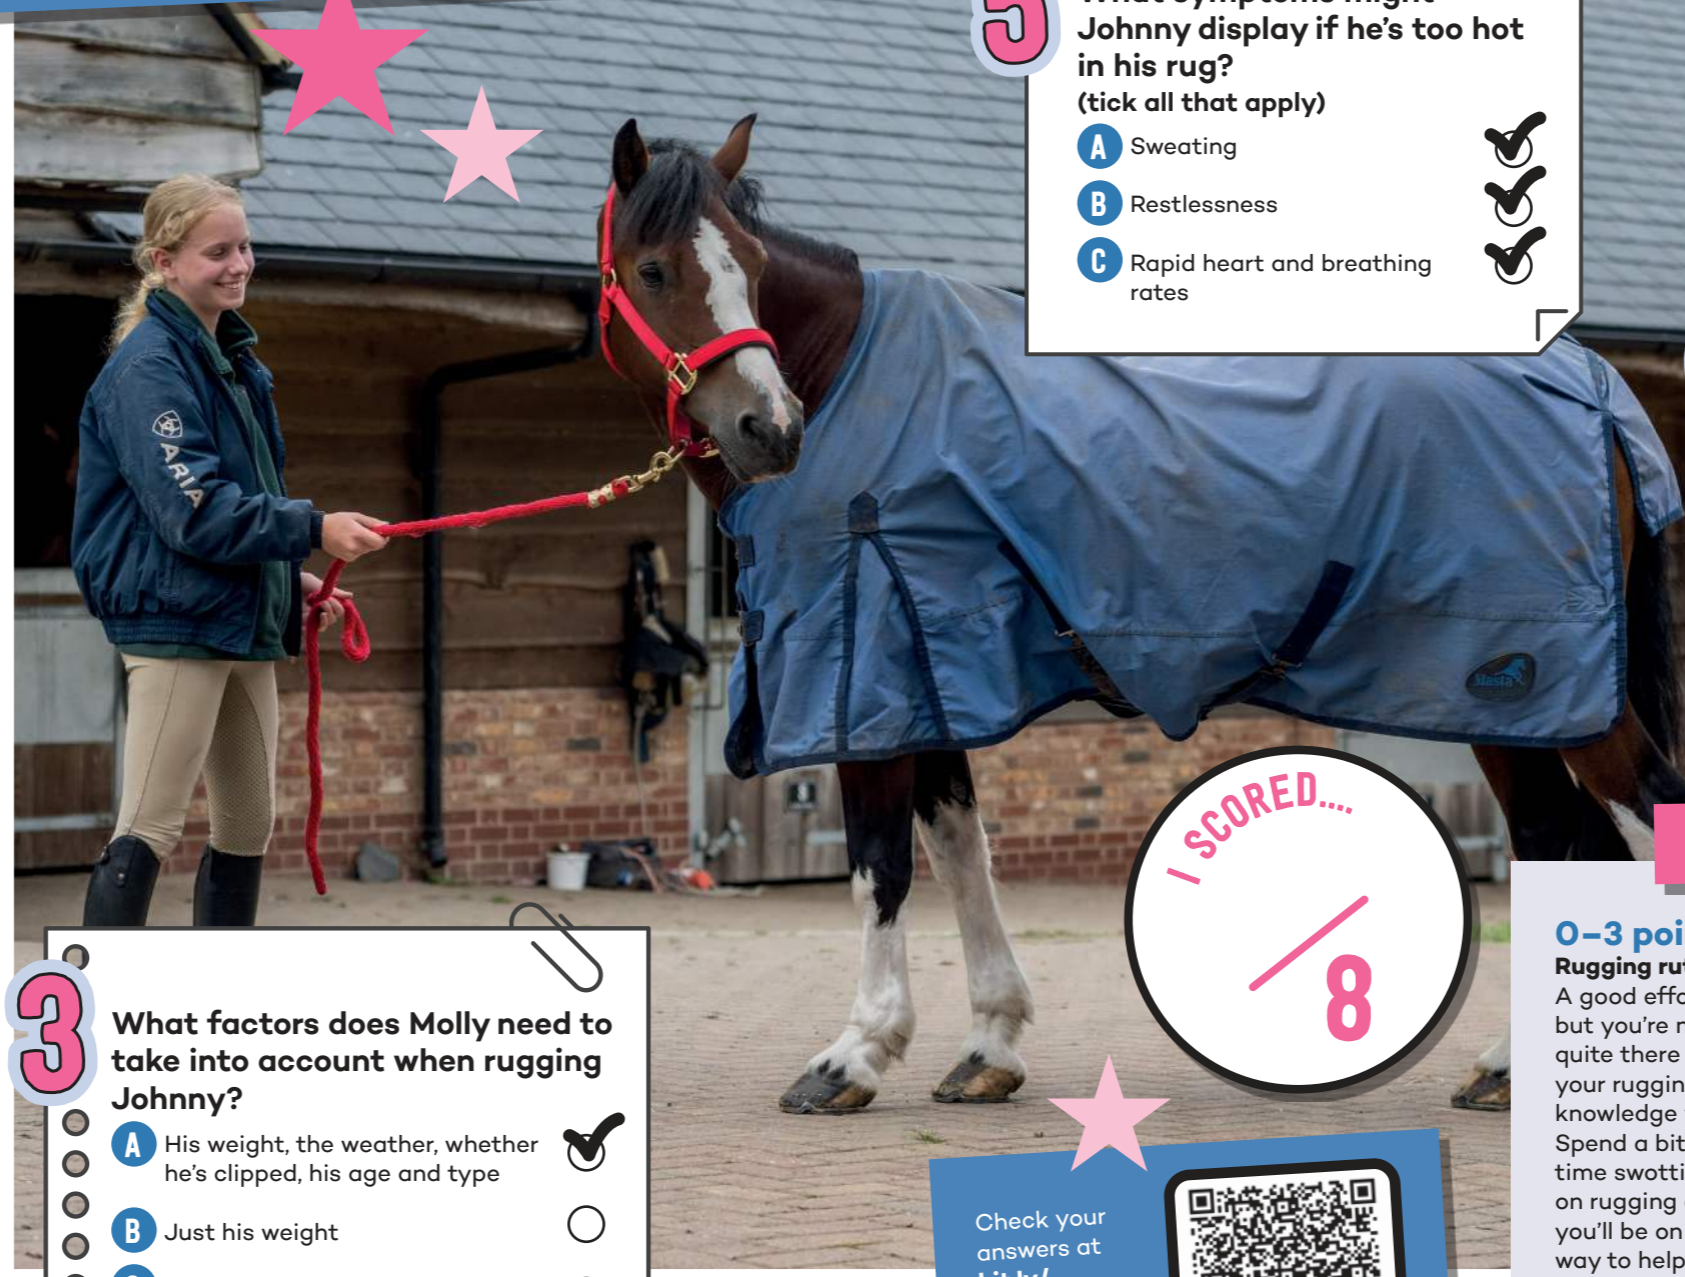

- A Every week
- B When the inside is dirty
- C Once a month

7 Johnny's rug is rubbing his shoulders. What can Molly do to help stop this?

- A Change the brand of rug
- B Use a rug bib
- C Leave him unrugged

8 Johnny's torn his middleweight turnout so Molly needs to buy a new one. How much fill should she look for?

- A 100–200g
- B 250g and over
- C 0–100g

SCORED...
8

Check your answers at bit.ly/PNY_QUIZ_ANSWERS or scan here...

HOW DID YOU GET ON?

0–3 points Rugging rut

A good effort, but you're not quite there with your rugging knowledge yet. Spend a bit more time swotting up on rugging and you'll be on your way to helping Molly soon!

4–6 points Rugging in-betweener

So close, yet so far! You need to pay attention to the finer details and think about the answers a little more carefully. Don't worry – you'll nail it soon!

7–8 points Rugging pro

Great work! Molly is feeling confident now you've helped her with her rugging dilemmas. She's feeling prepared for the winter ahead and it looks as if you are, too!