Sticky start

Uh-oh! You're not quite clued up on the names of cross-country fences yet, but there's still plenty of time to learn more! Next time you're walking a XC course, ask a friend to talk you through the names and then have another go at our quiz!

3-5

Half way house

Good try! There's still room for improvement, but you're almost there. With a little bit more research, you'll be flying through the finish in no time and Gaby's XC course will be complete.

Flying finish

Woohoo! You flew through the finishing flags and are a XC pro! Keep your knowledge up to scratch and maybe one day you'll be a cross-country course designer!
