

♥ JASMINE AND JASPER'S ADVENTURE ♥

Jasmine was super-excited to get to the yard to see her PONY Jasper. It was a crystal-clear day and she had so much planned for the two of them. Jasmine collected Jasper's HEADCOLLAR and walked to the field. To her horror, there stood Jasper, covered head to hoof in a thick layer of dry MUD! Trying to stay annoyed with him, even though he has the cutest face, Jasmine put on his headcollar and led him back to the yard. First, she PICKED out his FEET. Then, she got to work with the DANDY brush, then the BODY brush, before detangling his tail with the COMB. After a lot of scrubbing, he was finally sparkling clean again and ready to go for a RIDE.

After an incredible RIDE, it was time to pop Jasper back out in the FIELD with his mates in the hope that he wouldn't turn into a mud monster again. Jasmine strolled on back to the yard to finish tidying up before heading home. What a day she'd had, but she couldn't wait to come back TOMORROW.
